ROMEO Y JULIETA CHURCHILLS RESERVA 2008

Habanos s.a. introduces the first Reserva of Romeo y Julieta, in the Churchills vitola, the most historic of the brand. With a limited production of 5,000 boxes containing 20 cigars each, these Habanos contain only leaves from the Vuelta Abajo region that have been aged a minimum of three years.

Since its birth in 1875, Romeo y Julieta has become one of the best-known brands of Habanos. The brand is particularly appreciated by enthusiasts who appreciate balanced blends with excellent aroma. Habanos, s.a. is pleased to introduce the first Reserva created by this brand after more than 135 years of history. For the creation of this Reserva of Romeo y Julieta, the best tobacco leaves from the Vuelta Abajo area in the Pinar del Río region harvested in 2008 are selected. All the leaves used in this Habano, filler, wrapper, and cap were aged in a long and careful process lasting at least three years.
