Vegueros – A renovated tradition

In Vuelta Abajo it is traditional for the Vegueros - the farmers who cultivate Cuban tobacco - to make their own cigars. The Vegueros brand, which was introduced in 1996, is a creation which pays tribute to all the generations of farmers who have cultivated tobacco in Pinar del Río.

After more than 15 years of existence, Habanos s.a. is completely transforming the brand, whose name is so evocative and closely tied to the tobacco's roots. The vitolas that originally made up the brand are being replaced by three innovative formats. As well as its new image and presentation in 16-unit metal tins, the brand is introducing a blend with a medium to full flavor.
